

Gather around for some fun,
it's time for a scavenger hunt!

Come on in and take off your shoes, that's where you'll find your first clue.

When you find your
next clue, you might go to a place where you
keep your food cool.

Now It's time to get clean, go where your reflection can be seen.

Now that you are here
jump for joy, go to the place where you keep your toys!

Don't give up you're almost there!

It's time for a nap, go
place your head here.

Roses are red violets are blue, this is your final clue!

Come and have a seat, this is the place where we eat.

Hello, my sweets!
You made it here and found
your treats.

Happy Valentine's Day!
